Glen Rock Special Education Parent Advisory Council

SEPAC

The Special Education Parent Advisory Council is a district wide organization created by parents to support the emotional, social and academic well being of children with special needs. We provide information, educational opportunities, resources, and support to families and professionals striving to achieve the maximum benefit for all children in our community.

Glen Rock Special Education Parent Advisory Council

OUR MISSION

- To ensure effective, appropriate learning environments for all of Glen Rock's special needs children.
- To enhance the family-school partnership in special education and to facilitate access to services.
- To facilitate active participation and acceptance of children with special needs in the community.
- To educate, support and mentor parents as they advocate for their child's special education needs.
- To provide opportunities for families to support each other and share information.

OUR VISION

We aim to improve the instructional process for children classified for Special Education and Related Services, and to promote the inclusion of children with special needs with the necessary supports within their schools and the community at large.

Some of the goals of the Glen Rock Special Education Parent Advisory Council are:

- To provide direct input on the policies programs and practices that impact services and supports for children with special needs and their families.
- To increase the involvement of families of children with special needs in making recommendations on special education policy.
- To advise on matters that pertain to the education, health and safety of children with special needs.
- To advise on unmet needs of children with special needs.
